TICKETED EVENT

AAGP Members:

*Join the celebration and Support the AAGP
Political Action Committee*

High PAC Donors, those who have given $125 or more*, are invited to dine, dance, and kick back at the Iron Cactus Mexican Grill and Margarita Bar on the San Antonio River Walk. Enjoy . . .

- One of the largest private patios on the River Walk
- Dinner buffet featuring Mexican and Southwestern Cuisine
- Live music provided by Mariachi Mujer Internacional, an all-female mariachi and the “official mariachi” of the San Antonio Spurs NBA basketball team

Sit back and take in the sights and sounds of the San Antonio River Walk while enjoying Mexican and Southwestern food and beverages. The restaurant and patio are reserved exclusively for the AAGP-PAC’s event.

Transportation will be provided to and from the San Antonio Grand Hyatt Hotel and the Iron Cactus—about 5 blocks away.

 Reserve your tickets for this special event by making a contribution to the AAGP-PAC on your AAGP Annual Meeting registration form. AAGP members are entitled to one reception ticket for each $125 contribution to the AAGP-PAC between May 1, 2010 and March 18, 2011. Members-In-Training and Student Members are entitled to one reception ticket for each $70 given to the AAGP-PAC during the same time period. For each additional $35 contribution during the same period, AAGP members are entitled to one ticket for a child under age 18, accompanied by a ticketed adult.

AAGP-PAC is a separate, segregated fund established by AAGP. Individuals may make voluntary contributions to AAGP-PAC using personal checks made payable to AAGP-PAC or with an individual Visa, MasterCard, or American Express. Contributions from corporations and associations are illegal and will be returned. Under federal law, only U.S. citizens or permanent resident aliens (green card holders residing in the U.S.) may contribute to, or be solicited for, a political action committee or a political campaign. Gifts to political action committees are not tax deductible.
